SECTION 1

NOTE: According to the department of financial institutions, the current 30-day time limit for limited liability companies to apply for reinstatement after being administratively dissolved is an unnecessary burden on LLC owners who which to reinstate their business. Further, the department indicates that it may create unnecessary administrative burdens on the agency. This amendment of the LLC reinstatement provision is consistent with the corresponding reinstatement provision that applies to business corporations (see s. 180.1422, stats.).

SECTION 2. Initial applicability.

(1) This act first applies to limited liability companies that the department of financial institutions administratively dissolves on the effective date of this subsection.
